DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 1/9/01 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 103

2. Claims 1-5, 7-18, and 23-26 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miyamoto. Applicants argue that Miyamoto does not teach or suggest a recording material having a high gloss and/or a high print density as is obtained in the instant invention. Applicants arguments, however, are not commensurate in scope with the claims. Applicants do not claim the aforementioned properties or characteristics in the instant recording material. Additionally, "it is elementary that the mere recitation of a newly discovered function or property, inherently possessed by things in the prior art, does not cause a claim drawn to those things to distinguish over the prior art." In re Swinehart et al., 169 USPQ 226 at 229. Since the Miyamoto recording medium teaches all of applicants' claimed compositional and positional limitations, it is inherent that the medium functions in the manner claimed by applicants. The burden is upon the "applicant to prove that the subject matter shown to be in the prior art does not possess the characteristic relied upon." To date, this burden has not been sustained.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
